

Gwen Stefani

Her look: Rock Star Chic

Why we love it: Gwen's bump turned out to be her favorite fashion accessory—the perfect complement to her iconoclastic, edgy style. She looked as comfortable in clingy dresses as she did in piled on layers—and she didn't drop her trademark red lips and platinum 'do for a minute.

Steal her style: Combining bold pieces is really as easy as combining basics—treat them the same way you would your favorite jeans and try teaming them with everything in your closet.
